iVAMOS PAY! PARTNERS WITH ECREDABLE TO help cardholders build credit history

CINCINNATI, OH, USA, March 19, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- VamosPay Mastercard Prepaid Card is proud to announce its partnership with eCredable, a leader in the FinTech space, enabling VamosPay cardholders a quick and easy way to build better credit scores. iVamosPay! is an innovative digital and virtual payment solution, specifically geared toward multicultural communities in the U.S. – a real alternative to cash banking, bank overdraft fees, high interest rates and expensive check cashing fees. This segment needs a full-featured solution that is simple and less expensive to use and one which they can rely on for all their financial needs. VamosPay knows that many in our communities are also new to credit or don't have a credit score. Others need to raise their credit score faster or rebuild their credit. eCredable Lift® with the VamosPay card now allows consumers to link their utility accounts (such as power, water, phone, cable, etc.) – and provide the opportunity to raise their credit scores in just a few days bringing a much-needed solution to the communities we serve.

“VamosPay is committed to helping our communities build stronger and more secure financial futures.” said Douglas McGann, VamosPay president. “We are proud to partner with the innovative experts at eCredable to bring the critical service of credit building for the multicultural communities that we serve.”

“We are thrilled to be announcing our partnership with VamosPay,” said Steve Ely, CEO of eCredable. “Paying your account with your VamosPay card is not only smart and convenient; it also helps you build a more useful credit history once you are enrolled in eCredable Lift.”

Building a solid and useful credit history is an essential part of truly being able to participate in today's economy – including finding better jobs, enabling the purchase of a new home, getting an auto loan or qualifying for a small business loan. VamosPay is the first prepaid debit card of its kind that is providing a solution that cardholders can use to help build their credit.
